HOUSEKEEPERS' ITEMS.

Keep flowers fresh by putting a pinch of soda in the water.

Boil the clothesline, and it will not "kink," as a new rope is apt to do.

Keep a small box filled with lime in your pantry and cellar; it will keep the air pure and dry.

Soda is the best thing for cleaning tinware; apply with a damp cloth and rub well, then wipe dry.

Prick potatoes before baking, so that the air can escape; this will prevent their bursting in the oven.

For sore throat beat the white of an egg stiff with all the sugar it will hold and the juice of one lemon.

When baking cakes set a dish of water in the oven with them and they will not be in any danger from scorching.

Grease spots that have burnt and become hard on the stove, may be removed by a few drops of kerosene oil on the cloth before rubbing them.

To mend large holes in socks or merino underwear, tack a piece of strong net over and darn through it. The darn will be stronger and neater than without it.

To clean a stove, zinc or zinc-lined bath tub, mix ammonia and whiting to a smooth paste, apply it to the zinc and let it dry. Then rub it off till no dust remains.

A teaspoonful of alum will make clear four gallons of muddy water. Boiling the water is necessary to remove disease germs when a farm pump or town reservoir has a bad name.

When sealing fish, hold them under water in a pan; then the scales will not fly in your face, but will fall to the bottom, and when the water is poured from them are ready to turn into the slop pail or compost heap.

Five or six quarts of biscuit flour can be prepared at a time by taking one teaspoonful of soda and two of cream of tartar, or three of baking powder to every quart of flour, sifting it thoroughly three times and put away for use.

Onions are improved by soaking in warm salt water an hour or so before cooking, as this removes some of the rank flavor. They cook tender much quicker if sliced in rings instead of splitting. If they are peeled, and sliced with hands under water, some "idle tears" may be avoided.

A MOUNTAIN OF RED PAINT.

A Denver dispatch says: A mountain of red paint has just been discovered near Denver, which promises to develop into something wonderful for this country. It is oxide of iron and was discovered in the vicinity of Bergen park, and is a light-brown red, containing four per cent of iron. Only a depth of five feet has been sunk so far in the deposit, and men who are familiar with that class of mineral say it is similar, if not superior, to the paint shipped from Rawlins by dealers in that city. It is believed from the nature of the development that when a greater depth is reached it will turn into venetian red, something heretofore unknown in this country, and of great commercial value. Assistant General Manager Spen, of the Jones Oar Company, has the new find in charge and thinks he has struck a bonanza.

There's no doubt but our "Sep" has struck something, and if he can't make a strike of paint he'll undoubtedly strike the stockholders.

A CLEANSING SPONGE BATH.

In response to numerous inquiries we give again Dr. Otto Fullgraff's celebrated eau seditiff: Into a quart bottle put a cup of sea salt, two ounces of camphor and two ounces of ammonia, filling the bottle with hot water. Let it stand over night, shake it well in the morning, pour into your basin a cupful of the mixture and a cupful of water, in other words, enough for your sponge to catch, and thoroughly bathe from the top of your head to the soles of your feet. The water will be as black as your shoe, and you, cleansed and rejuvenated, will thank the Giver of every good and perfect gift for brains.—New York Recorder.

A COZY NOOK IN WINTER.

In the states we occasionally have an autumnal day when there is just a tinge of frostiness in the air and a vast sea of sunlight through which the earth exultingly plunges; not a cloud in the sky, scarcely a breath of wind stirring the dust heaps, when effort of mind and muscle has no limit.

In New Mexico—the land of all lands where "it is always afternoon," such days are the rule, not the exception; and no other nook in New Mexico has so delightful a climate at all seasons of the year as Las Vegas Hot Springs. From November to April scarcely a day passes during which the sun does not shine brilliantly and continuously. During the summer months, when lower countries are sweltering in the heat, there is the same genial warmth and glow without the enervating effect of excessive humidity. The average mid day winter temperature is from 60 to 65 degrees Fahrenheit. In summer the highest flight of the thermometer rarely exceeds 80 degrees at noon, and the average for that hour is only 75. The altitude (7,000 feet above the sea), the picturesque valley, the high, pine covered mountains, the even temperature, and warm, dry air, combine to make this a favorite resort for tourists and an ideal place for invalids.

Las Vegas Hot Springs is located on the southeastern slope of the Santa Fe range of the Rocky mountains, six miles from the thrifty city of Las Vegas. There are upward of forty hot and cold springs, the water from the best of them being conducted in pipes to a large and handsome bath house of modern construction. Almost all forms of chronic disease yield to the curative effects of these wonderful waters. It is not claimed nor expected that everybody will be made well. It is confidently asserted that where there is anything left to build upon good results almost always follow a thorough course of treatment at the Hot Springs, and some remarkable cures have occurred. Persons who have failed to receive relief elsewhere for rheumatism, catarrh, lung trouble and diseases of the blood are invited to try the great New Mexico sanitarium. Skilled physicians are always in attendance.

A branch line of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railroad connects the city with the springs. Five daily passenger trains each way render it easy of access from Las Vegas. Telegraph and telephone lines give additional communication with the outside world.

But the chief feature of the place, as due from its pre-eminence as a resort for invalids, is the MONTZUMA HOTEL, a commodious and massive structure of stone, crowning a slight eminence near the station. It may be doubted by those who know nothing of western push and enterprise but here, in the very heart of old Spain-in-new-America, is the finest watering place hotel west of the Alleghenies. Perhaps there are a few other that are larger—they are not many. Certainly none are more satisfying to the eye or more restful to the tired, dusty, worn-out traveler. Large, handsome rooms, a fine cuisine, a commanding location and a careful catering to the wants of all guests make the Montzuma hotel peculiarly suitable as a stopping place for transcontinental tourists via the Santa Fe route and for all classes of rest, pleasure and health seekers the country over.
